Little Stars Meadow

Sterretjesveld (which translates as 'Little Stars Meadow') is a memorial place for premature and non-viable babies, located at cemetery Akendam in Haarlem. In this ash-scattering garden ashes are scattered anonymously. There is a memorial tree at Sterretjesveld, with a leaf for all pregnancies of which the ashes have been scattered at the meadow after a collective cremation organised through Bloemenhovekliniek.

Have you opted for collective cremation through Bloemenhovekliniek? Unfortunately, you cannot be present during the cremation or the scattering of the ashes, but you are more than welcome to visit Sterretjesveld whenever you want to commemorate your baby.

Have you opted for an individual cremation through Yarden? You can say goodbye to your baby in the family room at the crematorium. Because of the termination method your baby is kept in a closed coffin. Yarden will take care of the cremation and scattering of the ashes. You cannot be present for the cremation and the scattering of the ashes, but you are more than welcome to visit Sterretjesveld whenever you want to commemorate your baby.

It is also possible to take the ashes home with you. You can come and collect the ashes from 1 day after the cremation by appointment. Yarden conducts the cremation with the greatest care but cannot guarantee there will be any ashes left after an individual cremation.

Children's Meadow

Do you live in the Netherlands and have you opted for an individual burial? The funeral service company will provide you with more information. You can choose to bury your baby at the Children's Meadow ('Kinderveld') at the municipal cemetery Akendam in Haarlem. The Islamic section of the cemetery also has a Children's Meadow.

You can also choose to take your baby home with you and bury it at a place of your choice.

If you decide to have an individual burial through a funeral services company, please refrain from having a hearse collect your baby at the clinic. This would be very distressing for our other clients.

Additional information

If you opt for an individual cremation or burial, Bloemenhovekliniek has small birch coffins available, which you can buy at cost price.
